

A guide for our services

We offer a range of different services. We support any boys, men, and non-binary people who have experienced sexual violence as well as their friends, family members and professionals supporting them.

WE ARE

01

Empathy (as listeners)

We offer an understanding and sensitive ear to anyone who thinks this is the right service for them.

02

Without Exception

Our door is always open to everyone.

03

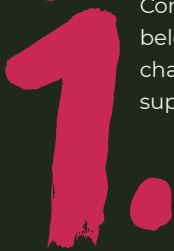

Community

We offer a safe space for survivors to speak their truth and listen to people's journeys, learning and growing together.

04

Challenging Perceptions

We strive for greater recognition and acknowledgement within society so more people can speak their truth.

We offer an initial 12 sessions of counselling to help overcome sexual violence, together. Our counsellors are ready to listen and will offer understanding and sensitivity to all clients.

What is Groupwork?

We offer a wide range of groups which provide different ways for you to connect with other survivors, tell your story and share experiences. Our group facilitators and fellow group members are here to help you not feel alone.

How does it work?

Contact us via the information below. We will then arrange a chat to discuss how we can best support you.

How long will it last?

We offer everyone an initial 12 sessions of counselling and we have a sliding scale of fees according to income. Further support is possible according to need.

ISVAs support people who are considering reporting, or who have reported to the police. Our service is open to boys, men, non-binary and transgender people over the age of 13 who are living in London or where the offence happened in London.

What support can I get?

- Provide you with information on the criminal justice process
- Attend interviews, court and other meetings.
- Provide emotional and practical support.
- Help you think about your safety.
- Listen.
